

HAIL, JOHN OSTER but not farewell was the tenor of the greetings extended the New Lenox grade school superintendent last Saturday night as some 300 friends and neighbors met to wish him a satisfying retirement. There was a dinner in the Lincoln-Way high school cafeteria at which Mr. Oster was the guest of honor. Afterwards the group adjourned to the auditorium where a program was given along the line of the "This is Your Life" format. Mr. Oster was very pleased -- and a little touched too by the honest warmth of the tribute paid to him. He is thru with the administrative side of education, he says, which is largely made up of just one bond issue after another but he may do a little teaching now and, of course, a lot of reading. At the left is M. R. Kruck, assistant superintendent, Mrs. Oster, Mr. Oster, and Supt. A. H. Chapman of Lincoln-Way. (Semmler Press photo)

Area Must Prepare for Big Population Surge

The next 10 years will see a tremendous growth of population, business and industry in the southwestern suburbs and Mokena and Frankfort are so situated that they can expect to be greatly affected, it was pointed out today by Walter Welsch of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce and chairman of a group of Mokena business men who are vitally interested in preparing for the changes destined for the area.

Mokena and Frankfort are ahead of most communities in the southwest region in that several years ago their officials and plan commissions had the foresight to consult land use experts and get a plan for the area surrounding the two communities.

There is still some work to be done by both villages in enacting and revising ordinances relating to zoning, construction, subdivisions and similar subjects, it was pointed out but their basic plans are sound and will serve as foundations on which to build.

Transportation facilities serving the Mokena and Frankfort area -- rail and highway -- are such as to make this an ideal location for industrial and manufacturing firms who would avoid cross hauling, it was pointed out by experts.

A survey by the Catholic Bishop's office at Joliet, the Telephone, Public Service and N-Gas forecast a population of some 50,000 in the Mokena-Frankfort-New Lenox area by 1972, with the bulk of it centered on Mokena and Frankfort.

A series of articles intended to give more information on the anticipated growth of the area will begin soon in this newspaper.

SPC Sponsors Dance

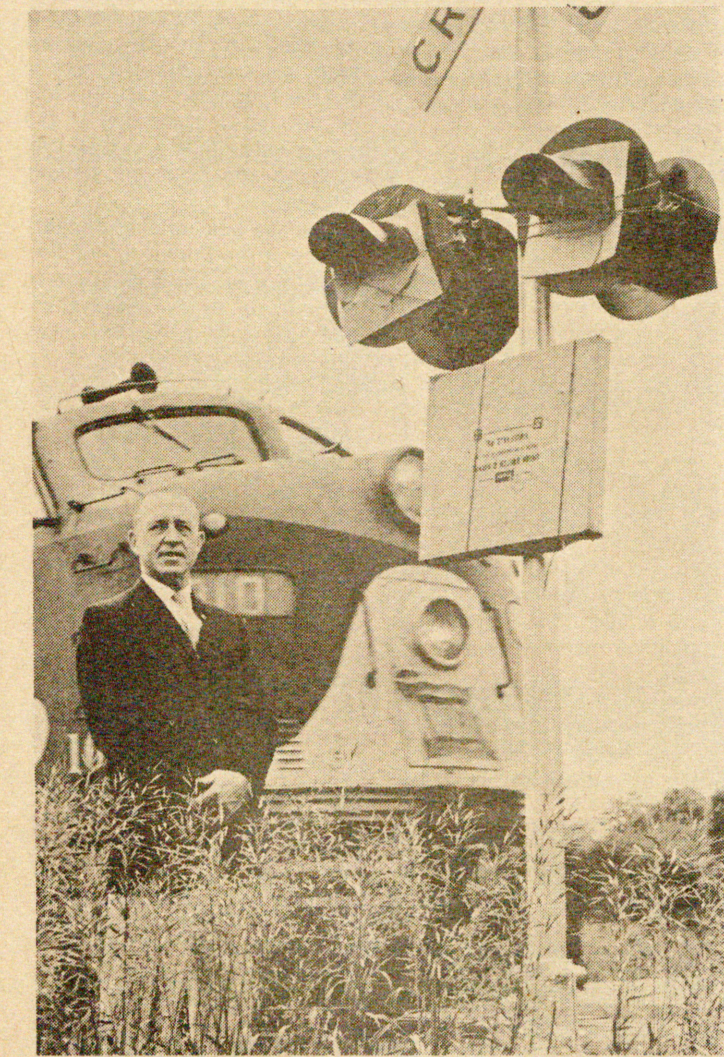

The SPC of Frankfort, sponsors of the building of a pavilion in the village park, needs $315.46 to complete the job, it was announced at the meeting of the committee last Thursday night, June 7.

To raise at least a substantial share of this sum the SPC is planning a buffet dinner and dance at Valley View Farm the night of July 3. Tickets may be purchased now from any of the committee members. A donation of $5 will admit one couple. Dinner will be served from 7 to 9 o'clock and there will be dancing from 9:30 to 1 a.m. Many pleasant surprises are planned, the committee announced.

Members of the Frankfort Lions club finished roofing the pavilion Sunday. Arthur Marti has provided the wood stain for the structure and Mrs. Wallace Weichbrodt has volunteered to apply it. Casey Genkot has donated four trash cans so the area can be kept litter free. The SPC will purchase a grill with money donated by the Royal Neighbors.

The committee met last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Irving Rudman.

INSPECTS NEW FLASHER warning signals that will guard the Francis road crossing of the Wabash railroad where several persons have been killed, the last victim having been a student at Lincoln-Way high school. The man here, A. Hunter Chapman, Lincoln-Way superintendent, was one of many community leaders who worked to get the crossing protected. The trains travel at high speed at this point and most of the year aren't always easily visible until one is practically on the tracks. The flashers should eliminate future tragedies here and will, it was pointed out, if motorists will only just heed them. The engineer on this locomotive wanted to see the signals too. The electricians still had work to do when this picture was taken this week which accounts for the "blinders" on the lights. (Semmler Press photo)

Former Mokena Girl Dies in Auto Crash

Funeral services were held Monday, June 11, from St. Mary's church for Mrs. Patricia Wagner, 18, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident near Ft. Bragg, North Carolina, last Thursday, June 7.

Her husband, Hassan, is stationed at Ft. Bragg. Besides her husband, Mrs. Wagner is survived by a son, Hassan Jr., 10 months old, who will remain here with his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wagner, First st., Mokena. Also surviving are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred King, Mokena, two brothers, Fred 12, and William, 11, and a sister, Anita, 9 years old.

The body was brought to the Hirsch chapel at Tinley Park Saturday and remained there until brought to St. Mary's church Monday morning for last rites. Interment was in Fairmont cemetery, Willow Springs.

Suffers Jaw Fracture in Water Skiing

Robert Mathews, 20 years old, Elmwood street, Mokena, an employee of the Cooper-Hosert garage, suffered a broken jaw last Saturday, June 9, in a water skiing accident on Bass Lake in Indiana.

Mathews fell forward, striking the two ropes, suffering deep rope burns on his neck. The handle on the tow rope struck his jaw, fracturing it.

He was permitted to come home after a dentist had examined him at Knox, Ind., and had x-rays taken at Silver Cross hospital which revealed the jaw fracture. He was to have had the jaw wired Tuesday.

About a month ago Mathews was injured in a go-kart accident and his nose is still swollen as a result.

Circus Coming to Frankfort, Orland Park

Sells Bros. 3-ring circus is traveling in Illinois at this time and will be at Frankfort and Orland Park next week.

The circus is to show at Frankfort June 19, sponsored by Bobzin-Swinford post, American Legion. It will be at Orland Park the next day, June 20, under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce. The circus will show at the junction of U.S. 30 and 45 at Frankfort and at 151st and West avenue in Orland Park.

The afternoon performances will begin at 2:30 and in the evening at 8 o'clock. The program calls for 30 feature acts in the three rings. The big top, the circus management states, is fire and waterproof and will seat thousands comfortably.

Will Vote Saturday on Forming Junior College

Voters in the Lincoln-Way high school district will go to the polls Saturday to express their opinion of the proposal to establish a junior college district.

The proposed junior college district would be made up of seven high school districts. Lincoln-Way is the only district in Will county that is involved. The other six are in southwest Cook county--Carl Sandburg, Reavis, Oak Lawn, Evergreen Park, Blue Island and Argo.

If formed the district would be a separate taxing body with powers to float bonds and levy and collect taxes.

Proponents of the program say the district would be one of the richest in the state, containing as it does the Clearing industrial district and many other factories, industries and commercial areas.

Objectors say that it will be too costly, that the taxes will be high despite the high valuations, and that the costs will grow instead of diminish.

Objectors in the Lincoln-Way district fear they will be dominated by Cook county interests and that as the poor relations in the set-up they will get the treatment that tradition reserves for such.

Then there are objectors who oppose the creation of any other taxing units and contend that in their opinion it doesn't make sense to take on additional obligations when it is becoming increasingly difficult to support those already established.

The ballots will be cast and counted in two different areas--the incorporated sections and the unincorporated territory. To be approved the junior college plan must get a majority of the votes cast in both sections. If it is beaten in the unincorporated areas but carries in the incorporated spots it is beaten, or if it is defeated in the incorporated areas and beaten in the unincorporated sections it is beaten.

An organized effort is being made in the Lincoln-Way district to defeat the proposal in both sections and the opponents there have been endeavoring to stir up opposition in the other districts.

It is reported, however, that there does not seem to be much interest shown in the proposal in other areas and so the opposition in the Lincoln-Way is hoping that a large "no" vote here might swing the election.

The polls will open at noon and close at 7 p.m.

Arbury Hills school and Ann Rutledge school at Lincoln Estates will serve as polling places for incorporated areas in Frankfort township; Lincoln-Way high school the voters of New Lenox township outside the village, the Ray Walsh turkey farm on the Monee blacktop road will be the polling place for Manhattan voters living outside that village. The Manhattan and grade schools will serve as polling places in those villages, the Haven school will perform a like duty in New Lenox. Mokena village voters will cast their ballots at Carpenter Street school.

Tonight, June 14, the junior college issue will be discussed on the "Party Line" program aired over Joliet radio station WJOL (1340 kilocycles) at 10 o'clock. Harold Miller, of New Lenox, a member of the Joliet high school and junior college faculty and a strong opponent of the SSW suburban junior college idea, is ready to debate the issue if any of the proponents of the program wish to appear. But regardless of whether any champions of the college plan appears Miller will discuss it.

Expect Mokena Board to let Front St. Contract Tuesday

When the Mokena board meets next Tuesday night, June 19, it is expected to award a contract for the improvement of Front street between Mokena and Division streets, including its resurfacing.

The resurfacing, however, will just be the frosting on the cake, it was explained. The street will be renovated the same way as it was between Mokena street and Wolf road. A new grade will be established and curbs and gutters installed.

Next year, if there is sufficient motor fuel tax money available it is the hope of officials to carry on with the improvement of Front street to the east.

And in connection with mention of motor fuel tax Mayor Charles Swanberg told the trustees that he had word from the Illinois Municipal League advising that all municipalities use up their share of this tax as it becomes available. If they sit back and let it accumulate, as many municipalities do so they have a large balance with which to work, they may wind up without anything in the till. The state, the league warns is getting ready to borrow this money on hand. The state finds itself short of funds, it is reported.

Bids on the Front street improvement were received last Friday afternoon at the village hall but the figures will not be available until they are made public next Tuesday night.

The mayor suggests that the village endeavor to lease the surplus right of way of the Rock Island railroad along Front street and use it as a parking lot. The mayor hoped the railroad would be willing to help with surfacing of the property with stone. Village Engineer Ralph Yunker suggested that the village issue bonds for setting up parking facilities and pay off the bonds by charging for the use of such lots. Municipalities, it was pointed out, are not required to furnish parking space on its streets and when the state highway department is resurfacing one of its highways thru a municipality it never improves the areas along the curbs that is used as parking space. If a city wants that space improved it has to do it out of its own funds.

Trustee Rauch reported that he visited Crete to ascertain the effectiveness of the new CD siren installed there. It is the same as the new siren now serving Mokena. The siren at Crete is on the water tower. Altho installed higher than the one in Mokena people in the Crete area complain they can't hear it either.

People in Arbury Hills, for example, to the east of Mokena, say they can hear the Mokena siren faintly if they are out of doors but not at all if they are indoors.

Mayor Swanberg's reappointment of Durward Fant as village treasurer was approved.

The primary tank in the sewage treatment plant is in need of repair, Trustee Henry Shevlin reported, and suggested that Ralph Yunker take a look at the damage and make recommendations. Shevlin said he was unable to get in touch with Robert Hamilton, the engineer in charge of the sewer job. The contractor, Lindblad Construction Co., sent a man out who agreed that the tank was in need of repairs. There is an area about 10 foot square, Shevlin said, that is deteriorating.

Ronald Galowich, of Galowich & Galowich, Mokena's new village attorneys, suggested that in the future the village exact bonds and guarantees covering construction work for a certain period.

James Wrath, who spent $162.48 on a drain tile to carry water away from his property, was reimbursed for half of the sum by the village. Trustee Shevlin said the tile between Revere st. and Wolf rd. is blocked, causing water to flow back into Wrath's basement, and there is another 800 feet of tile in the area also blocked. He would rent or borrow a tile augur and endeavor to eliminate the stoppage. Yunker suggested they make a T in the line at Revere and Wolf road to relieve the pressure.

Auction Will be One of Main Fiesta Attractions

The public auction scheduled for Saturday afternoon, June 30, will be one of the highlights of Mokena's Fiesta Days.

Fiesta Days, days of bargains as well as fun, will get underway with a free lunch starting at noon on the 30th. The lunch--a hot dog, potato chips and a soft drink--will be served on the Mokena State bank's parking lot -- from noon to 2 o'clock.

The auction will begin at 1 o'clock and run until there is nothing left to sell. People are invited to bring articles to the auction they wish to dispose of, and will get 90 per cent of the sales price. The Mokena Chamber of Commerce that is sponsoring Fiesta Days will retain 10 per cent of the auction sales prices to help meet the expense the celebration will cost.

A big fireworks display is planned for the night of the Fourth at Mokena community park. Booths will be set up at the park on the Fourth. There will be food and soft drinks sold at the park by various organizations and various games also are planned.

The fireworks will begin when it is dark enough.

The Mokena Lions club is assisting the Chamber of Commerce in planning the celebration.

The winner of the queen contest will also be announced on the Fourth. Votes for the queen candidates are 10 cents each and are available now. The contestants for the queen's crown will represent various business establishments and each vote will be worth a 10 per cent discount to the purchaser on purchases of $1 or more at the business place which issue it.

Three prizes are to be given away at the close of the fiesta--one for $100 in merchandise, one for a $50 gift certificate and one for a $25-certificate.

MR. AND MRS. ADAM J. HEUSNER

Frankfort Couple Wed 50 Years Plans Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Heusner, Walnut street, Frankfort, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary June 18 at a dinner to be given that evening at Arch Inn. Seventy-five persons--members of the immediate family and intimate friends--will attend the affair.

The anniversary date was actually June 6, but their daughter, Mrs. Dexter (Jeanette) Phillips, of Wilmington, Del., could not be here on that date and the celebration was put over until next Monday. Their son, Warren Heusner, lives at La-Grange. There are two grandchildren, Dexter Scott and Gwen Phillips.

Mrs. Heusner is the former Anna Kampe, whose brother, the late William Kampe, was supervisor of Frankfort township for many years. The Heusners occupy the Kampe home and it was there that the wedding took place June 6, 1912, with the Rev. Mr. Lambrecht, pastor then of St. Peter's church, officiating.

The wedding dinner was held next door at the school with music provided by the 30-piece village band.

Mr. Heusner, who wound up as a farm operator, started out his working career as a railroad telegrapher. In between was a long period in which he sold automobiles, farm machinery and repaired steam engines.

He was 17 years old when he went to work for the Pennsylvania railroad as a telegraph operator and worked as such for a year. Then two of his close friends, also telegraphers, met with serious accidents as a result of railroad and he decided to try something else.

Adam Heusner was one of the pioneers in the automobile business. He began his career in 1911 when there was 250 different makes of cars, so it is easy to believe the claim that the automobile business not only launched many new industries but was also a bonanza for the makers of headache remedies.

Mr. Heusner also sold farm machinery, horse drawn and steam powered, with here and there a piece with an internal combustion engine. These engines operated more or less in a fixed place, driving other machines thru belts. When tractors appeared they were added to the line.

They also could be said to have given Mr. Heusner another line of business--selling horses. He would take horses as partial payment on tractors or automobiles and then, of course, he had to find a market for his horses. A good many of them were sold to truck farmers in the Dutch settlements.

The steam engines in use on the farms needed repairs from time to time and in the spring and summer months Adam Heusner and his crew of mechanics would be on the move constantly. Working in fireboxes and removing and installing tubes in boilers was hard work, he recalled, but he liked it.

In time he became a farm owner and a director of the Frankfort State bank. He sold out his automobile business in 1949 and while in one sense he retired it was just from that one business. He is a member of the Frankfort plan commission and he keeps busy operating his farms and is active in community affairs. Mr. Heusner is a former member of the Frankfort village board and the school board.

Girl Scouts Display Art Work at New Lenox

Pictures in the "Your Home Frontiers" arts and craft project for Girl Scouts and Brownies, have been judged and are on display for the month of June in the New Lenox State bank.

The "Picture Your Home Frontiers" project, developed for the 1959 Roundup, was repeated this year at the request of more than 80% of all Girl Scout Councils. Any girl scout, brownie - senior age, in all states, and troops in foreign soil are eligible to participate in troop or council projects from which Roundup entries are selected.

Judges for the art work of the 1962 roundup exhibited here were: Kenneth Kinney, art teacher at Lincoln-Way; Mrs. George Iskalis of Joliet; Louise McDonald, of Joliet and Mrs. Alberta Hull, railways art consultant of New Lenox.

The best work selected will go with the senior patrol to Round-up in Button Bay, Vermont.

Winners in the top six were: Vicki Batson, 12 years of Frankfort; Laura VanDuyn, 10 of Wilmington; Jiel Napziger, 9, Kankakee; Katherine Foster 11, Kankakee; Barbara Beshear, 10, Plainfield and Frances Hein, 11 of Joliet.

Alternates were Claire Sipple of Peotone; Carol Shobe, of Kankakee; Lee Anne Wood, Kankakee; Mona Michels, Joliet; Jackie Van Duyn, Wilmington and Gale Toef of Joliet.

There are two runners up from Mokena and from Schmulh school, New Lenox.

Set Deadline To Kill Noxious Weeds

The Will County Canada Thistle and Noxious Weeds Committee is reminding everyone concerned that June 23 is the deadline to cut or spray thistles and noxious weeds to prevent them from going to seed.

After June 23, thistles that reach the bloom or fuzz stage will have to be burned. An inexpensive weed burner is a fast and effective way to burn the tops to prevent them from going to seed. Every precaution should be made to prevent any serious fire.

Members of the county committee are Wayne Lehnert of Peotone, Clark Watkins of Manhattan and Adolph Knickrehm of Peotone.

Place Yunker on Conference Baseball Team

Ron Yunker, Lincoln-Way high school senior, has just been voted to the Southwest Suburban all-conference baseball team. This is the third of three all-conference honors for Yunker this year.

Ron was voted all-conference honors in football and basketball. He is the only player in the conference to gain honors in three different sports in the same year.

Ron was the outstanding back on the Lincoln-Way football team and was the leading scorer for the Knights in basketball and in the top ten scorers in the conference. In baseball he was probably the loops outstanding pitcher. Ron has been offered a scholarship at the University of New Mexico for matriculation in September. The scholarship has been granted for his baseball ability.

One of those new Chevrolets, Chevy II's or Corvairs should suit you perfectly and spare your budget any strain! We wouldn't presume to tell you which one to buy, but your Chevrolet dealer has more ways of helping you make up your mind. Like the Jet-smooth Chevrolet Impala, luxurious, extremely comfortable, undoubtedly the best riding car in its field; the Chevy II Nova, lively, lovely, and inexpensive, too; the Corvair Monza, a family car that rather thinly disguises its desire to be a sports car; and the Corvette, America's out-and-out sports car. As you see, your Chevrolet dealer has just the tonic for that "let's go traveling" look in your eye. And, what's nice about buying one, you won't have to juggle your life around to afford it. You know?

CHEVROLET

Four Sun 'n' Fun ways to get away (shown top to bottom) are the Corvette, Corvair Monza Coupe, Chevy II Nova Station Wagon and Chevrolet Impala Sport Sedan.

Now, beautiful buying days at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's Golden Sales Jubilee!

Asks Court to Declare Former Mokena Man Dead

Missing for 46 years, Clemens Oswald, a native and one time resident of Mokena, will be declared legally dead on June 29 if a petition now before Probate Judge Stewart C. Hutchinson is approved on that date.

The petition asks that a niece, Marguerite Schweser, a daughter of one of Oswald's two surviving sisters, Mrs. Louise Schweser, 427 Linden avenue, Joliet, be declared administrator of the estate which is valued at about $1,500. The estate consists of personal property, according to Attorney Alex Wojtak, of the new law firm of Herschbach and Tracy, who prepared the petition.

A major portion of the estate is said to be a couple of shares of the Mokena State bank.

Oswald's other surviving sister is Mrs. Lydia Ryan, of Mokena. Another sister, Mrs. Rose Bechstein and two brothers, Julius and Harry, are dead.

Mrs. Schweser and Mrs. Ryan and the children of the two deceased brothers are listed on the petition as the only heirs at law. If Oswald ever married after he disappeared no one member of his family nor any of his friends ever heard of it.

Clemens Oswald was 35 years old when he disappeared in 1916. At the time he left he was making his home with Mrs. Schweser. In the 46 years that have passed since he left there has never been any message or other trace which would indicate he is alive, it was stated.

He was born July 16, 1881, the son of Erhardt Oswald, who came to Mokena from Germany. The father died in Mokena on Oct. 10, 1921. Clemens mother, Sophia Oswald, died at Mokena in 1930.

Under the law in Illinois a person can be declared legally dead if all trace of him has been lost for seven years.

BARBARA MACHTEMES, of Frankfort, is one of the 74 students at the Evanston Hospital School of Nursing, Evanston, who will receive their diplomas of graduate nurse in the Northwestern University commencement exercises, Saturday, June 16.

On Saturday evening, in special pin night ceremonies, members of the graduating class will receive the Evanston Hospital School of Nursing pin, marking the successful completion of the three-year course. Col. Margaret Harper chief of the Army Nurse Corps, and a graduate of the Evanston Hospital school, class of 1934, will give the pin night address.

Miss Machtemes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Machtemes, Hillside Road, Frankfort.

L-W Group to Spend Week at Music Camp

A group of Lincoln-Way music students will spend this week at the Eastern music camp at Eastern Illinois University near Mattoon.

Those attending are Barbara Hanson, Sarah Sippel, Diane Muehler and Denny Kappel from Mokena; Nancy Steinberg from New Lenox and Carol Lauffer of Tinley Park.

The young people live on the campus and have all of their classes outdoors. On Sunday, June 17 the school will give a concert for the parents. The music camp is available to all band and choral students of Lincoln-Way high school.

Tickets Man for Firing Gun Within Village

Mokena Police Chief Vernon Bormet gave a ticket to James Gillette, Bonnes st., Mokena last week calling for his appearance in police court to night (June 14) on a charge of discharging a firearm within the confines of the village.

Gillette is alleged to have shot and wounded a dog last week owned by Kenneth Benson. According to the information obtained by Bormet, the animal, shot in the spine, made his way home where he collapsed on the floor and died.

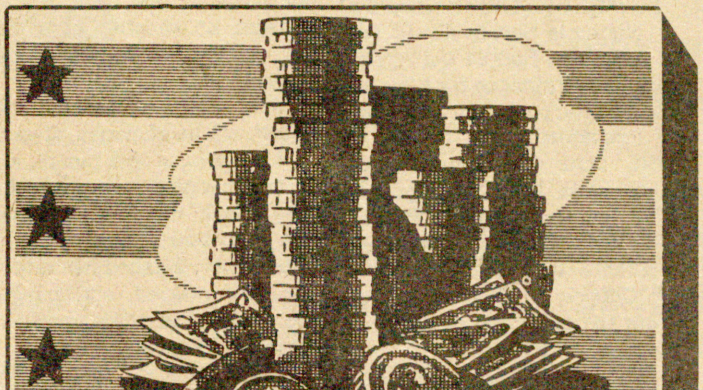

According to Chief Bormet the shot is alleged to have been fired from a pellet gun.

MARY ANN OTTO—of Frankfort, a junior at Lincoln-Way high school, will go to Jacksonville next Tuesday, June 19 to attend Illinois Girls State, a seminar in government and good citizenship sponsored by the Illinois American Legion Auxiliary. Girls State opens June 19 and runs thru June 26 at Mac Murray college, Miss Otto was selected for the honor by the Woman's Auxiliary of Bobzin-Swinford post, American Legion, of Frankfort, of which Mrs. Melvin Eastman is president. Miss Otto was selected because of her integrity, cooperativeness and scholastic record. She is active in the Future Teachers, Science club, History club and Math society at Lincoln-Way. Mrs. Donald Eastman, Girls State chairman at Frankfort, has invited Miss Otto to address the auxiliary on her experiences in Girls State. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Claude Otto.

Manhattan Youth Winner of Coveted DeKalb Award

Each year the most outstanding FFA and vocational agriculture student is selected and presented the DeKalb Award of agriculture achievement. The student is a senior.

The award is based on achievement in vocational agriculture classes, the student's home farming program, his activities in the Future Farmers of America organization and scholarship.

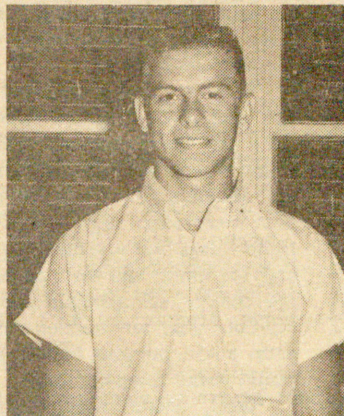

This year at annual senior honors night at Lincoln-Way school the award medal and certificate was presented to Dale Meyer. Dale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Meyer who reside on a farm near Manhattan.

His home project program has been one of the most outstanding in the history of Lincoln-Way FFA. His main projects were a fine herd of registered Landrace swine, an outstanding herd of Angus and Hereford feeder cattle and crop project. Dale is selling top notch breeding sows and boars from this Landrace herd. He has quite a record from showing at the livestock fairs—local 4-H and FFA as well as sectional and state fairs at Springfield.

Dale has been a real leader in the Lincoln-Way FFA chapter, holding the office of president during his senior year. He will be awarded the highest degree in the state in FFA, the State Farmer Degree, during the annual state FFA convention to be held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago this month.

Also, Ron Heisner a close friend of Dale's and runner-up for the DeKalb Award, will be awarded the State Farmer Degree at the state convention.

Scholarship is important in making the selection of the DeKalb Award winner. Dale has been a member of the Lincoln-Way National Honor society for the past two years.

These students have indicated consistent scholastic achievement over a period of four years and were recognized before the entire senior class at the honor award program held June 4.

Verbal Fireworks Mark N.Lenox Board Meeting

A verbal free-for-all interspersed with periods of calm and ending on a peaceful note with the routine reading of the bills marked the meeting of the New Lenox village board on Wednesday of last week.

The board did agree to endeavor to put a drainage plan into effect which it hopes will solve the problems of those living in the vicinity of Second and Pine.

Robert Hamilton, village engineer for New Lenox, submitted drawings which show a pipe carrying off the water in what purports to be the natural drainage channel. The cost was estimated at about $1,000 with village employees doing the work. Trustee Eugene Hunt said he would operate a backhoe to dig the necessary trench. Mayor Stanley Gilmore appointed Trustee Robert Randolph in charge of the project. Some easements will be necessary. Drainage or rather lack of it at Second and Pine has been a much discussed subject by this and preceding boards. Several times a solution appeared to be at hand but something always turned up to cause abandonment of the plan.

There were a number of residents present to inquire why no arrests were made in connection with the shooting of a dog several weeks ago. It was explained that police did not witness the incident and could not take action unless someone signed a complaint and a warrant issued. No complaint was signed in the case and in the course of the conversation last week it was brought out that the shot was fired from inside the doorway of a home and there wasn't any witness that could testify to who fired the shot—whether it was man or woman.

Edward Piercing, who lives at Third and Pine, complained that two cats were using his garage as living quarters and he wanted something done about it. Trustee Eugene McGovney, police commissioner, advised him to call Chief George Kennedy with his problem. There is an ordinance in New Lenox directed against stray cats as well as dogs. McGovney said the chief would talk to the owners of the cats and instruct them to restrain their pets from roving.

Trustees Evans Drotts and Randolph were appointed by the mayor to look into the request of Stanley Weatherby for a varation of the zoning restrictions on his lot in the vicinity of Third and Pine. His petition had been denied by the zoning board. Weatherby sought to have the set back line reduced from 20 feet to 14. The latter would put him in line with neighboring houses now but it could make him out of line in the future. Drotts and Randolph are to report back to the board with all the facts and a recommendation.

GETS DEGREE—Helen Sheridan has been graduated from the College of St. Francis at Joliet and next fall plans to teach school. Miss Sheridan, daughter of Mrs. Lucille Sheridan, 148 Center st., Mokena, was president of the Alpha Eta chapter of Lambda Iota Tau, a national honor society for English majors.

The next day, last Thursday, Hunt and Drotts met with town, county and state officials and engineers to discuss starting action to get flasher lights to protect the Rock Island crossing that would connect with the entrance to the VFW bowling alley site. There is now a road that cuts over the tracks at the west end of the village and there was talk of closing that road and opening one further east. Richard McCarthy, who is in charge of the bowling alley project, pointed out that a road could be built to come into the property from the east.

Thot

By GLENN F. LOGAN
"A pipe organ," remarked Jefferson P. Thottlebottom, as he gently massaged a swelling on his nose, "can be a deadly instrument."

His word, plus his actions,
caused one to look more closely.
Mr. Thottlebottom's nose has a chronic redness which acquaintances charge to a prolonged tussle with spirituous beverages but there was a deeper tone to the area about the swelling that invited comment.

"Do you mean to infer," he asked, "that someone picked up a pipe organ and hit you or that you got your nose caught in a stop or the bass pedals?"
"Nothing so complicated," he answered, leaving off with his massage long enough to grab three of my cigars and four books of matches. He fired up and puffed contentedly.

"It was quite simple," he went on, "and I know that the psychologists must have a term for it. In the language of the street, or everyday life, one might refer to the condition as the screaming meemies."

"And it all began quite innocently. You see I was passing McGillycuddy's saloon and lending library a little while ago
and stopped in to see if there were any new books."

"And who do I see sitting in there looking moodily into an old fashioned and tracing geometric patterns on the table top with a finger but a friend of mine of long standing."

"Now Charlie—that's his name so that's what I call him—is a very stable citizen, a senior junior executive whose hobbies include music and civic works. The last time I had seen him, which was two or three months ago, he was telling me about a project he was working on. Seems like Charlie's church

by owen day

"Why don't you give up smoking, Leroy?"

had a very fine pipe organ-- if it was fixed up, that is. He was telling me that it had a most wonderful tone and the volume was such that if given its head and played wide open it would have shattered the windows in the church.

"Of course, nobody wanted to do that, the price of church windows being what it is, but the fact seemed to please Charlie because it sort of set the organ out from others. But in the condition the instrument was in would not have cracked a wet paper bag and the tone, Charlie said, was something that would make a musician break down and sob. It was even worse, he said, than listening to a modern singer accompanied by a modern orchestra."

"The church had been getting the organ fixed from time to time but the organ was at the point where one couldn't trust
it. When a full, round mellow note was wanted there was likely to be a flat blat and the organist and the choir and even some of the congregation began to look strained and any sudden noise, even a kid popping bubble gum would make them jump."

"Well, some months ago a member of the congregation who loved music and was getting quite buggy by the erratic behavior of the organ, came to the end of his tether after having made provision in his will that the church was to get $25,000, providing it used the money to buy a new organ or give the present one a complete overhaul."

"Charlie said that a new organ would have cost more and they were assured that for some $20,000 they could expect to have an organ that would be much better than any new one so the committee elected to have the instrument rebuilt."

"Now Charlie, loving music
as he does and having a penchant for civic or community works, plus the fact that he has some knowledge of pipe organs, was pleased to accept chairmanship of the committee that was to have charge of rebuilding the organ."

"As anyone knows who has served as a chairman of any committee whether it is church, chamber of commerce, club or fraternal organization, it is the chairman who carries the load.
The committee members always have other things to do until it is time to take a bow.
And naturally if the project or program is a bust or the going is hard the committee members will disclaim all knowledge of the plans and point the finger of blame to the one responsible-- the chairman."

"Well, when I saw Charlie sitting there looking sad and twirling his grog around in the glass in absent fashion, I was a little surprised because Charlie isn't much of a hand for doing his belting in a saloon and when he does the places are a little further up town, if you know what I mean, than McGillycuddy's."

"Now, I'm telling you the truth. The last time I saw Charlie he was telling me about this organ project and was quite enthused. So when I greet him it is only natural that I should think of this job so I give him
a big, bright hello, and say:

"How's the pipe organ, Charlie? I suppose it is now--"
"Please," Charlie interrupted, "I would rather not talk about it."

But he waved me to a seat and signalled to Mona, McGillycuddy's niece who works as a waitress now and then to help out, but she had noticed me gladhand Charlie so she was already on her way with a double bourbon on the rocks, so I knew that no matter how much he didn't want to talk about it, talk he would. Sip and listen-- that would be my role.

Charlie sighed, drained his drink and signalled for another.
"I'd just as soon not talk about that organ," he declared.
"I have headed many committees and many persons have been kind enough to say that I have done well with various projects. I think that even the present one will turn out alright but it is a diller."

"The committee is no trouble. As you could expect not a one of them has made a suggestion or offered to help.
I have called several meetings
but so far no one has shown up

"The arrival of summer to most Americans signifies the beginning of the vacation season-- a time of carefree relaxation and outdoor activities," says J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Identification, and then goes on with a warning which we believe is well worth carrying as a public service.
"Regrettably," he continues, "the summer will be a season of tragedy to a great number of people. They will become victims of the annual onslaught of crimes of passion and violence."

"According to established seasonal trends, forcible rape will rise approximately 16% above its annual average during the next several weeks. Murder and aggravated assault will climb some 12% each.
A similar increase will be registered in depraved sex attacks on innocent and defenseless children.
These figures represent crimes against the person which will become known to police. Untold numbers of victims will remain silent thru fear of personal embarrassment."

"To a large degree, this shocking picture is an indictment of careless and unwitting citizenry. Gaining a short respite from the humdrum of everyday duties, countless individuals subject themselves and their families to unnecessary dangers.
Many who adhere to some standard of safety at other times seemingly throw precautions to the wind during the summer months. For instance, vacationing travelers, in a congenial mood of good will, are apt to minimize the inherent danger connected with the signalling thumb of a hitchhiker. A hasty benevolent act could place them in the clutches of a vicious killer."

"Certainly, great stress should be placed on the abhorrent crimes perpetrated by child molesters. Closing of the school year adds an extra burden to the important roles of parents and guardians in this regard.
Children with time on their hands need extraordinary attention and supervision. This should not and cannot be left to public officials.
Parents who fail to warn their children to avoid secluded spots, to re-

but me. That is alright tho, I can work better alone anyway."

"I interviewed two or three organ builders and finally decided on one that comes very highly recommended and rated as a true expert in the field.
He was hired and work has been going forward for a couple of months. I was getting along real well with him."

"As I said none of the committee showed up but several scores of volunteer "experts"
not only began giving me advice but also reached the point where they come to the church and offer to guide the organ builder over any rough or tricky spots he may encounter. And there are some who not only have suggestions but insist they be carried out. Some of them have been taking the builder to task and he has gotten his back up now and I suspect is going a little slower."

"It develops now that the carpet committee, which has been doing nothing for the past couple of years has suddenly come to life and indicates it is ready to go ahead with plans for carpeting the church but can't go ahead while the work on the organ is progressing. Another group is talking about getting the walls repainted but it seems that if this work can't be done right now it will have to be put off two or three more years."

"There is large gaping holes in two walls near the front of the church that formerly were closed in by organ pipes. I never knew how many esthetic members we had before but I am finding quite a number now whose senses are offended by having to look at these holes, especially the big one that is visible to all of the congregation."

"This hole will have to be filled immediately I am told because there is to be a wedding this week, another one next week and I believe a couple the week after that. All of a sudden our

A Public Warning!

fuse rides and reject gifts or enticements from strangers are guilty of gross negligence.

"Public indifference, long a harbinger of lawlessness, does not decline with the rise of the thermometer. Many persons in haste to be off to favorite vacation sites all but abandon their homes. Their absence could not be better publicized with blinking neon lights.
Yards are unkempt and littered with newspapers; accumulated mail and milk bottles clutter the door. Blinds are drawn and doors are often left unlocked. Such flagrant carelessness is a red carpet incitation
to burglars."

"Other individuals add to the woes of authorities in areas they visit. Their unlocked automobiles are stolen, and luggage, clothing and other valuables left overnight in cars are taken by thieves. Some drivers climb behind the wheel of a car with no apparent appreciation of the responsibilities connected with a driving permit. They race along the nation's highways as if licensed to kill, and all too frequently they do kill, either themselves or innocent wayfarers."

"A disturbing side issue of such incidents is the additional strain placed in law enforcement. At a crucial period when most departments are engaged in exhaustible battle against rising crimes of violence, precious man hours are spent investigating lesser violations caused by carelessness."

"Understandably, as summer begins, most police authorities prepare for the worst and hope for the best. They alert the public, solicit cooperation and initiate special measures to handle seasonal outbreaks peculiar to their localities, but the protective shield of law enforcement can be stretched only so far."

"To gamble with crime is to lose. The loss could be--and frequently is--a human life. As public servants who know firsthand of the exacting toll claimed by crime resulting from carelessness, we must somehow get this message across to the American people."

church has to become a matrimonial center and I hope I never again encounter such unreasonable demands, pigheaded women as the mothers of these bride-coming-up."

"I have been trying to placate and push until I am almost crazy. I must confess I don't know what to do."

"Well," said I, there is no need for you to take on about this. As far as the weddings are concerned there is a very easy solution. All you have to do is put on an angel costume and perch up there in that hole and spread the wings. That would fill most of the space.
You could even have someone pump air out of the organ to rustle the wings and thus give an illusion of flying. As for the music you could either blow a trumpet, strum a harp, or hum.

"But really, Charlie, I went on, I think maybe the mothers and the others have a point. It seems to me that a couple of months in overhauling an organ, say, Charlie, I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll come down tomorrow and give your organ man a hand. . . I've always been curious about how a pipe organ looked from the inside.
What you need on this job is a good pusher."

"It was then he hit me in the nose. Well," and Jeff stood up to leave, "it's taught me that if you would avoid a sore nose keep it out of the other fellow's business. So long, bub."

NO CAUSE FOR DIVORCE

Another month and it would be the third wedding anniversary of the Sterlings. During those three years they had both continued in their jobs; Dan with the Acme Trucking Co. and Betty as a waitress in Doyle's restaurant. They are still living in Betty's one and a half room apartment, the same one occupied by Betty before her marriage.

As Betty rode on the bus that day to Lawyer Jones' office, she thought that this would be a fine day to begin the divorce proceedings which she had contemplated for the past five months. She never imagined that marriage could be so dull and monotonous, with nothing but work, dirty dishes, arguments and unpaid bills.

Betty told her story to Lawyer
Jones in a tearful manner, adding that Dan frequently came home late at night, without explanation to her, and that he insisted on keeping all of her pay, giving her barely enough to get by on.

Betty also recalled that her friend, Millie Sherman, divorced her husband last month, and received a nice settlement, for very much the same reasons that Betty now related. Finally, when Betty finished her tale of woe, she relaxed, wondering if she would be nervous when testifying at her trial.

Lawyer Jones then asked many questions about Betty's relationship with her husband, Dan. Finally, Lawyer Jones shook his head, saying that under the circumstances Betty could not legally divorce her husband. Much to Betty's great surprise, she was advised that the law in Illinois specified certain and definite grounds on which a divorce or annulment could be obtained and in the absence of competent evidence proving such grounds, no divorce or annulment could be granted.

More specifically, Lawyer Jones advised Betty that in order to successfully sue Dan for a divorce, she would have to prove either that Dan was at the time of their marriage and continues to be naturally impotent; or that he was still married to another woman when he married Betty; or that he had committed adultery subsequent to their marriage.

Or that Dan had willfully deserted her for one year without any reasonable cause; or that he had been guilty of habitual drunkenness during their marriage, for the space of two years; or that Dan had attempted taking her life by the use of poison or other means showing malice; or that he had been guilty of extreme and repeated cruelty toward Betty; or that he had been convicted of a felony or infected her with a communicable venereal disease. When Betty admitted that none of these grounds was true in her case, she agreed that she would have to remain married to Dan.

Lawyer Jones also pointed out that there was no basis for an annulment in her case. In reviewing his notes, it appeared that they were married by a duly authorized person and that both she and Dan were in their middle twenties, that is, they were both of the age of contractual competency.

Also, there was no indication of mental illness on the part of either of them. Lawyer Jones was obliged to say that there were no grounds for legal action in her case.

In every divorce or annulment proceeding, the state is an interested party and every requirement of the statute must be met before one can secure either an annulment or a divorce. Public policy demands that the state have as much interest in the outcome of any such proceeding as either the husband or the wife, for to allow otherwise, would destroy the family unit and society as we know it.

Illinois Savings & Loans an $8-billion Business

Savings and loan associations of Illinois entered the second quarter of 1962 an $8 billion business, according to Guy Wood, Jr., president of the Illinois Savings and Loan League.

Growth in total resources during the first three months of 1962 amounted to more than $229 million, and April growth of $32 million, took total assets to $8,058,000 at the end of the fourth month of 1962. This is a growth of more than 93% in the past five years.

Reed-Ludwig, and of his grandson, John, from LTHS.

A potluck dinner honoring all graduates of the Homer Church constituency, was held at Homer Church Sunday following the morning service.

Sunday, June 17, will be Homer Church Loyalty Sunday. Rev. Cox's sermon-topical on that day will be "First Thoughts of the Trinity."

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hostert, Farrell Rd., have a new son, born June 4 at Silver Cross Hospital.

The David Dyers of Cedar and Bruce Rds. are the parents of a boy, born June 2 at Silver Cross.

Mortgage lending at Illinois associations has reached a new high for the first four months of the year—a total of $485 million—the highest for any like period in the history of the business. Two out of three home loans in the state are being made by savings and loan associations, according to Mr. Wood, who is also Executive Vice President of King City Federal Savings and Loan Association of Mt. Vernon.

A total of 639,685 borrowers are attaining home ownership thru Illinois associations. This is an increase of 12,110 borrowers during the first four months of this year.

Total mortgage loans outstanding at the end of April are $6,686,518,000.

Gross new savings have been received by Illinois savings and loan associations at the highest rate in their history during the first four months of this year. Withdrawals have also been made in unprecedented totals. The net savings gain of $205 million is 7% less than the gain of $221 million in 1961.

According to Mr. Wood, the net savings gains in January and April were less than in January and April 1961, while February and March showed increased net gains over the same months last year.

The April Decrease in savings gain is primarily a reflection of the purchase of consumer goods, especially automobiles, and the payment of income and real estate taxes, according to the League president.

Royal Neighbors to Meet at Church on June 21

By Elizabeth Anderson

The Good Luck Camp of Royal Neighbors will meet in Homer Church social rooms on Thursday, June 21, at 1:30 p.m. Hostesses will be Mrs. Gertrude Heatherwick, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Florence Homerding, Mrs. Hartie White and Mrs. Ann White.

The King's Daughters' meeting scheduled for June 7, was postponed because so many of the Daughters are busy at Vacation Bible School, and will be held on Thursday, June 21, probably in the J.J. Paddock home.

More than 100 children, teachers and helpers are enrolled at Homer Church Vacation School which will continue until June 15. On Sunday, June 17, the children will put on an exhibit of their accomplishments, when parents and friends may see the results of two strenuous weeks' work. The time of this program will be announced at the school.

Nineteen young people from Homer Twp. were among those who received diplomas at the Commencement exercises at Lockport Twp. High School on Monday evening, June 4. Several graduation parties were held that evening.

Among the graduates was Miss Karon Adelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adelman of 147th St., who are announcing her engagement to Thomas Hartford of E. Third St., Lockport. Wedding plans are not yet completed.

Miss Bonnie Cagwin, daughter of the Merritt E. Cagwins, is enjoying a vacation trip in Hawaii. Bonnie is a stewardess for Mohawk Air Lines. She is stationed in Boston and flies between Boston and New York City at present.

Rev. Roy Hanson, former Homer pastor, his wife and their daughter, Robin, called on a few Homer friends Tuesday evening. They were enroute from New York City where they are now working, to visit relatives in Nebraska. They spent Tuesday night with cousins in Joliet.

Betsy Hollister, younger daughter of the John Hollisters, was named "Student of the Year" at Reed School at the end of the term.

Another little girl, Dawn Barr, whose parents formerly lived in Homer, was recently graduated with honors from kindergarten at Kelvin Grove school, Lockport. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Cagwin, Oak Ave. Homer twp.

Betty Anderson received the Robert P. Adam Award at Joliet Junior College at the graduation exercises Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ronald Ziesemer is recuperating at her home on Bell Rd., from a recent appendectomy.

Mrs. F. J. Paddock has returned to her home after a few days' treatment in Silver Cross hospital.

Mr. Filipowicz, Sr. of Chicago, visited in the home of his son, Chester, on Creme Rd. last week, and attended the graduation of his granddaughter, Mary, from eighth grade at

In homes with Flameless Electric Heat you almost have to hunt for dust

When you move into an electrically heated home you can practically forget about dirt. Electric heat is as clean as the electric light you read by.

There's no flame or fuel to make dirt, soot, or grime. And electric heat is such gentle heat it doesn't even stir up dust. In fact, in an electrically heated home you often have to look for dust.

EVERYTHING STAYS CLEAN LONGER

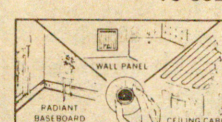

Your curtains and draperies stay fresh and nice for so long you'll have a time remembering when you put them up. Upholstery stays lots nicer, too. Electric heat is so clean you spend far less time housekeeping. That leaves you more time for activities you enjoy.

Living in an electrically heated home has other advantages, too, such as room-by-room heat control and fresher feeling heat that uses up none of the moisture or oxygen in the air. Even your skin feels more comfortable.

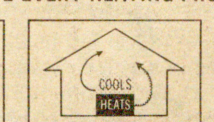

ELECTRIC HEATING NOW COSTS LESS THAN EVER

The recent rate reduction—on Electric Heating—applies to the three basic systems illustrated below. So, if you're looking for a new home... plan to build one... or want to modernize the heating in the home you own, call your nearest Public Service Company office for complete facts on the Electric Heating system that's best for you.

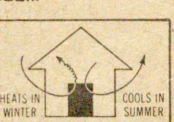

3 BASIC TYPES OF FLAMELESS ELECTRIC HEATING TO SOLVE EVERY HEATING PROBLEM

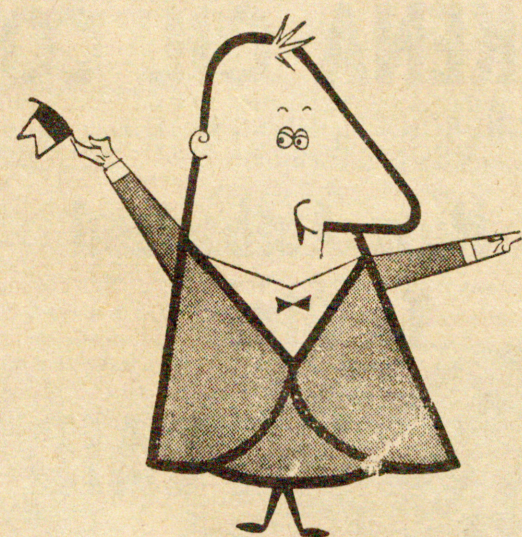

Radiant Electric Heating—offers room-by-room control. Ideal in homes or apartments. Just set the dial and you control the heat. Heating units circulate and radiate gentle waves of warmth throughout each room.

Central Electric Heating—new kind of furnace for new or older homes. Works with your present duct system. Circulates gentle electrically heated air. Air conditioning may be added at any time.

Electric Heat Pump—gives you perfect year-round climate automatically. Amazing unit switches to heating or air conditioning by itself. Maintains ideal temperature and humidity with one setting.

Alumi of Grade School Hold 55th Annual Dinner

MRS. KATHERINE HEISNER
FRANKFORT 5187

The 55th annual Frankfort grade school alumni banquet was held June 6, in the church parlors of St. Peter's United church of Christ.

The banquet was opened by Ralph Nieland, president, who introduced the Rev. Erich Bizer who gave the invocation. A roast beef dinner was served to 170 members and guests.

Following the dinner, Ralph Nieland welcomed the graduates, members, and guests. He then introduced George Sangmeister as toastmaster for the evening. Tom Olson, choral director at Lincoln-Way high school, led the group in community singing.

LeRoy Wright, principal of the Frankfort Grade School, introduced the teachers, 8th grade graduating class and their parents. The response for the graduating class was given by its president, Keith Schram. A roll call of years was conducted by vice president, Janet Folkers.

Several choral groups from Lincoln-Way, under the direction of Tom Olson, provided entertainment.

The speaker for the evening was Kenneth Kinney, arts and crafts instructor at Lincoln Way high school.

Humorous prizes were awarded, among the winners were John Weitendorf, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woodman, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Schinkowski, and the Rev. Erich Bizer. A prize was also awarded to the class of 1961 for having the most members present.

Donald Schroeder, chairman of the nominating committee announced next year's officers as follows: Janet Folkers, president; Alice Bettenhausen, vice president; Mary Ann Kratzner, secretary; and Glenn Warning, treasurer.

Committees appointed for 1963 are as follows: Marie Weichbrodt, Dianne Schoen, Orville Schinkowski, nominating committee; Marian Haakinson, David Zechlin, Jeanette Mark, ways and means committee; Evonne Stephen, Ruth Minger, Bonnie Fredin, Sue Krusemark, decorations and program book committee.

The benediction was given by the Rev. James Parker and the program closed with the unison singing of, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

Last Thursday afternoon Brownie Troop No. 386 with leader Mrs. William DeLaughter and assisted by Mrs. Con Wieringa held Fly Up Day Ceremonies in the Fellowship Hall of St. Peter's church. The troop presented a Flag Ceremony and then the Troop laws by candlelit to their mothers who were special guests. After which the girls were presented their wings and then received their girl scout pins. Those who received pins were Marilyn Bormet, Arnez Burgh, Judith Dralle, Gale Johnson, Karen Maertin, Connie Mark, Janice May, Dawn Morrison, Jennifer Otto, Kathy Vandervall and Sharon Warning. Ten girls of troop No. 379 with leader Mrs. Con Wieringa welcomed the 11 girls into their new troop and then all sang the girl scouts together song.

The Rev. Adolph Ullrich confirmed a group of young folks during the morning worship service in the Good Shepherd Lutheran church Sunday morning. Members of the class were Cathy Uthe, Marcella Kuse, Susan Fiegel, Diane Maertin, Vivian Bell, Patricia Simpson, John Gradwell, Glenn Johnson and Warren Klier. Among those who entertained guests in their home after the service were, the George Maertin who had 15 guests for dinner in honor of their daughter Diane. In the Robert Simpson home a double celebration with 2 cousins as the honored guests Patricia Simpson and Vivian Bell daughter of the Howard Bell with approximately about 40 guests at dinner. Warren Klier was the honored guest when about 40 relatives gathered in the home of his parents the Wilbert Klier at noon as dinner guests. In the Howard Johnson home with their son Glenn as the confirmit about 25 were entertained at a 2 p.m. dinner.

The Junior youth fellowship of the St. Peter's church will have their last meeting Sunday, June 17 at 7 p.m. until the fall. This will be an out door meeting followed by a wiener roast and later games, etc.

On Sunday June 25, the annual Sunday-School and church picnic will be held at the North Van Horn Woods beginning with an outdoor service there for the children and adults, this being childrens day. At noon a potluck dinner will be served, all are requested to bring their table service and food to pass. In the afternoon games will be the highlight and also a time of fellowship.

N. Lenox Girl Will Visit Holy Lands

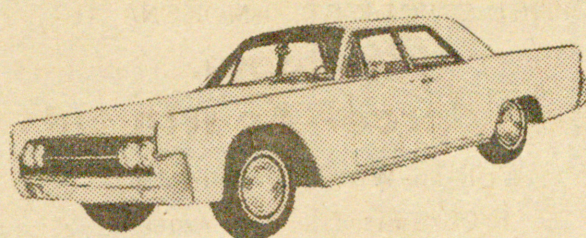

Miss Pamela Jeanne Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Clark of 112 Laura Lane, New Lenox, will leave New York via Pan American Jet on June 16 for a tour of Europe and the Holy Lands in the Middle East.

Pam will be traveling with her Aunt and Uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Horace R. Weaver of Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Weaver, formerly professor of Old Testament and Theology at Union college, Barbourville, Ky., is a noted bible lecturer and editor of Adult Publications of the editorial division of the General Board of the Methodist church.

This journey, "thru the centuries of bible lands and Europe", will take Pam to Rome, Italy; Athens, Greece; Cairo, Egypt for a visit to the Sphinx and the Pyramids, on to Luxor, the Nile River and visits to the Valley of the Kings and the Tomb of King Tut. Next on the itinerary is Danascus in Syria. Then on to Jerusalem, Jordan, which will be headquarters while making excursions to the Mount of Olives, Garden of Gethsemane, Mount Zion, Bethlehem, Shiloh and many other historical places. Then the tour will cross the Mandelbaum Gate into Jerusalem, Israel. In Israel, Pam will visit Tel Aviv, Tiberias, and have a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee. Then it is on to Istanbul for more sight-seeing.

On her return to Europe, Pam will visit Geneva, Switzerland, Frankfurt and Berlin in Germany, with a short stop in East Berlin. Next it is Paris, France for more exciting sight-seeing and shopping, and finally, London, England to visit the many points of interest there. Pam concludes her tour via jet to New York on July 16, where she will be met by her parents and young brother, Billy. This fall will find Pam back at her school work at Lincoln Way High School where she will begin her Senior Year.

NI Gas Co. Profits From Great Population Growth

Spectacular population growth of the Chicago suburban area, plus increased gas supplies and growing underground gas storage facilities, were major contributing factors to the rapid rise in revenues for Northern Illinois Gas Co.

This information came from Marvin Chandler, NI-Gas president, as he addressed stockholders at the utility's annual meeting in the East high school of Aurora on Tuesday (June 12).

Chandler said annual revenues topped $150 million for the first time during the first quarter of 1962. This was one and one-half times the 1959 level, and more than double that of 1955.

"In the final analysis, however," Chandler said, "what interests you most is not how many dollars we took in, but how many were actually carried thru the maze of expenses and taxes into earnings for you shareholders."

He told stockholders the com-

put to work. One example of this is the natural gas turbine energy system, a concept developed by the utility's own research people. NI-Gas has ordered two of these systems; one for its new division headquarters under construction in Glen Ellyn, the other for its new general office at Route 59 and the East-West Tollway, scheduled for completion June 1, 1963.

These experimental systems will furnish all electrical requirements for the buildings. Boilers using exhaust heat from the turbines will provide all necessary steam for heating and absorption air conditioning. This will permit NI-Gas to test thoroughly its gas turbine energy concept and prove it out before recommending it for commercial and industrial use.

READ EPHESIANS 3:14 - 21
We are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works. (Ephesians 2:10.)

After the early worship service in a chapel one morning, I remained in the pew and meditated for some time. At first lost in thought, I did not notice the man who was placing hymnals in the racks and collecting copies of the order of worship left in the pews. As he approached, I saw a profound smile in his old rugged face. Shining rays of willing and blessed service seemed to radiate around him.

Each of us has responsibilities of stewardship to face. We have work to do which may generally be considered mental. However, our responsibilities in daily life become rare privileges for honoring God when we put ourselves into our work with willing hearts, pleasant attitudes, and thoughts -- with a spirit like Christ's.

Yes, such stewardship not only becomes a privilege but also a beacon to all and sundry to Christian action, dedication, and service.

PRAYER: Let Christ shine in us, O Lord. May whatever we do, think, and say this day help those around us to feel the greatness of His love and see the beauty of His Life. In His name, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
It is Christ's spirit in us which makes our stewardship meaningful.

May Flowers Form Lovely Carpet in Area Woodlands

"Sweet April showers Do bring May flowers" -- so sang the early English poet Thomas Tusser. This rule holds as well for our forest preserves today as it did in his England of four centuries ago.

Wave after wave of wildflowers come into bloom, brighten the landscape and wane from early spring until the killing frosts of autumn. The first big surge of blossoms is in the rich moist woodlands. Then come the delicate early prairie flowers -- for example, birdfoot violet, pink phlox, wild hyacinth and puccoon. After the trees have leafed out, a second crop of taller broad-leaved flowers over-shadow the early spring forest bloomers. Thus the parade of color marches past, ending with broad bands of gold and purple on the prairies in late summer, and masses of white snakeroot and blue bellflower in the autumn woods.

Flowers bloom first in the woodlands because they get an early start. Under an insulating blanket of fallen leaves and leaf mold forest soils freeze but little, even in the most severe winters. As the days lengthen in spring the ground warms beneath the leafless trees and the early flowering plants push up.

They pop up quickly because, unlike later flowers, they can draw on food stored the year before in bulbs, tubers, fleshy roots and rootstocks. These contain starches and sugars which are literally bottled sunshine for a growing plant. It is characteristic of these abundant flowers of the spring woods that they bloom, make seed, replenish their underground stores of plant food, then wither, soon after the trees come into hot house?

Why suffer? Enjoy cool comfort in every room with economical gas central air conditioning

You'll sleep better, work better, feel better, too, when your entire home is gas air conditioned. Closed doors and windows keep out noise, dust and allergy-causing pollens. Unlike individual room air conditioners, a gas air conditioning unit can easily be integrated with your present forced air heating system to comfort-condition every room in your house. No unsightly "box" hanging outside your window.

Compared to any other type of central air conditioning, gas gives greater economy and better performance over the years. Operates at full capacity with typical gas economy year after year for the life of your heating system (usually 20 years or more)... rather than at decreasing capacity and increasingly high cost. You enjoy the advantage of minimum maintenance, too, because a gas air conditioning unit has no major moving parts to wear out.

Arbury HillsCivic Group Discusses Community Picnic Plans

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Mokena 5740
The Arbury Hills Civic Association held their final membership meeting before the summer break. The meeting was held at the school on Tuesday evening, June 5.

Since a quorum was lacking, no official business could be enacted. But there was a discussion about the coming Civic Association family picnic to be held at the Mokena Community Park.

There will be six children and six adult prizes awarded for contests run off at the picnic. The tickets will be $1 each. A ticket will admit one family. Tickets of some sort will be distributed to the children to permit them to obtain soda pop and ice cream.

Several "flyers" will be given out door-to-door at intervals to keep the people posted on additional developments. There will also be a listing of events of their approximate times at the picnic.

After the meeting two men from the International Association of Lions clubs arrived and Bud Campbell addressed those present on the advantages of forming a Lions club in Arbury Hills either by initiating a new and separate organization, or by having the Civic Association itself be transformed into a Lions club.

The history and workings of the Lions clubs were explained by Mr. Campbell. The charitable works and activities were explained in detail, and the work necessary for the formation of a club in Arbury Hills, was explained.

The next regular meeting of the Civic Association will be held the second Tuesday in September, since the first Tuesday might conflict with the Labor Day holiday.

Earl and Ruth Dishman of Arbury Hills became the parents of a daughter on May 27 at the South Shore Hospital in Chicago. She weighed in at seven pounds fourteen ounces.

Young Yvonne Marie Dishman, as her parents named her, has one brother and one sister at home to spoil her, Carolyn Ann Rushing and Stephan Michael Rushing.

Billy Sprinkle, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Sprinkle of 19403 South Oak Street, had his tonsils and adenoids removed at the Little Company of Mary hospital in Evergreen Park. He entered the hospital on Sunday evening, June 3, and was operated on Monday. He returned home later that evening, complete with one sore throat and no tonsils.

Parties, parties, plenty of parties at the Cookhouse, Curly Cook celebrated his third birthday with a children's party last month, May 19. Those attending were: Laura Monday, Ed and Sharon Blecha, Cindy Hayden, and Bonny and Denise Behnke.

Not to be outdone by her brother, Gwyn Cook celebrated her seventh birthday on June 6 with a children's party also. At her party there were seven of her school mates from Tinley Park area. Besides these school mates, there were five others from Arbury Hills; Harry Kronick, Bruzzie May, Marcella Heim, Paula Sheedy, and Nancy Dickerson.

The Bingo club held its monthly meeting at the home

1. We do not need this college.
2. We cannot afford this college.
3. We have all we can do at the present time to build and maintain our grade and high schools.
4. If the time comes when we must enter into a junior college plan we can consider the plan used by Lockport, established by State Law in 1951, whereby a high school district (by a vote by the people) agrees to pay the tuition of qualified students to a junior college of their choice. In this area it is usually Joliet Jr. College which accepts our students. This plan is comparatively inexpensive as compared to the proposed Cook County College. It is attractive, too, since Joliet Jr. College is expanding its facilities and will have the room it has needed.
5. Your Lincoln-Way High School Board has publicly stated that if the members of the board are fully convinced the people of L-W District are definitely opposed to this new Cook County College plan they will exert every effort to get out of the plan, even if the L-W District is voted in by the Cook County Districts.

About $550 million per year are spent for agricultural industry in the U.S., -- some 52% of it is money spent by industry.

Eligible Voters Had Record Output

Turkey producer-growers and contract producers who are eligible to vote in the nationwide referendum June 18-22 on the proposed turkey marketing order produced approximately 104 million turkeys, or about 96 percent of the record 1961 output of 108 million birds, according to Carl M. Bormet, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Cook County Committee.

These growers, Bormet pointed out, are eligible to vote for or against the marketing order formulated by the turkey industry to help obtain fair prices for producers and consumers, and to avoid future disastrous price situations such as that which resulted from over-production in 1961.

Small producers -- those who marketed not more than 3,600 pounds (live weight) of turkeys in 1961 -- are not directly affected by the order, and do not vote in the referendum, Bormet explained. Although there are many of these growers, he said, their total output was only about 4 million head in 1961. Their production was not a major factor in causing the downward trend in prices producers received last year. Yet the losses small producers suffered in 1961 were in the same ratio as those experienced by all growers.

Orchard Hill Presents Graduation Program

Friday, June 8th, students from Orchard Hill farm school entertained their parents and friends with a class play and a short musical program prior to the schools annual graduation exercises at Central school gymnasium in Tinley Park.

Mrs. Leslie Johnson, director of the school, distributed the diplomas Mrs. Doris Luger, story room and nature study teacher, wrote the play, many of the songs and directed the performance.

Junior students, under the direction of teachers Mrs. Joyce Smith, Mrs. Barbara Belamo and Mrs. Ruth Stuver, participated in the musical parts of the program. They are: John Nally, James Coble, Lance Armstrong, Susan Felber, David Krumke, Steven Lingle, Russell Myers, and Lyn Bellomo. Mrs. Lee Mager, music teacher from Tinley Park directed the music. Senior teachers are: Jean Adducci, Doris Luger, Doris Rae, and Jeanne Napravnik.

Rites Held For Joseph McNamara

Joseph F. McNamara, 11707-194th st., Mokena, died June 8 in Silver Cross Hospital, after a lingering illness.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Cecil Koop, pastor of St. Mary's church in Mokena, with a requiem Mass at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, June 12. Interment took place in St. Mary's cemetery, Chicago.

McNamara, before moving to Mokena, had lived on 69th ave. in Tinley Park and also in Chicago where he was employed for 33 years with the Railway Express Co. before his retirement. He was born March 19, 1894 in Limerick, Ireland.

Survivors are his wife, Florence, nee Loft; two daughters, Bernice, Mrs. Alfred Schickling, Mokena and Charlotte, Mrs. Bernard Kutilek, Tinley Park; one brother, Frank, Chicago; and one sister, Mira O'Farrell, Ireland. He was preceded in death by three brothers, Charles, James, and Albert.

He was a member of the Order of Seville. Arrangements were made by the Hirsch Funeral Home in Tinley Park.

Holde Rites For Accident Victim Patricia Wagner

Funeral services for Mrs. Patricia Wagner, 18, were held Monday, June 11, at St. Mary's Church, Mokena. The Rev. Cecil Koop, pastor of St. Mary's Church, officiated.

Mrs. Wagner died in an auto accident in Springlake, N.C., June 7.

She is survived by her husband, Hassan, a son, Hassan Jr., seven months and her parents, Fred and Iris King of Mokena, a sister Anita, 9, and two brothers Fred, 12, and William, 11.

Hints For Homeowners

BY: JAMES FIZZELL
ASS'T. FARM ADVISER

Bagworms are well known pests of evergreens and deciduous ornamental plants. They are capable of completely defoliating these plants, killing evergreens, and seriously damaging deciduous plants.

Bagworms get their name from the curious sacks which they begin to construct as soon as they begin feeding, and in which they live through the summer.

These bags provide protection for the worms while they grow, and serve as an overwintering place for the bagworm eggs.

Although both males and females construct bags, the male leaves the bag in late summer to mate with the females. Each female lays as many as 500 eggs in the bag, and then dies.

In this area, the eggs have just hatched. The newly hatched worms are very small and are feeding on nearby foliage. Since small worms are the easiest to kill, now is the time to spray for them.

Several materials are effective in controlling bagworms. Lead arsenate, one tablespoon per gallon, Malathion 2 teaspoons 50% concentrate, or Toxaphene 3 teaspoons 60% concentrate per gallon are all quite effective. Malathion should be used with care, as it is injurious to Cannart Junipers.

These sprays are not completely effective unless all the foliage infested with worms is thoroughly covered with spray. More than one spray application may be necessary if rain follows soon after treatment.

Bagworms on small plants can be eliminated by picking off and burning the overwintering bags, before the eggs hatch; picking old bags now is of little value since the worms have already left.

A pre-emergence weed control demonstration in corn and soybeans has been established this spring. It is located on the Herb Kohl farm, south of Vollmer Road east of Cicero Avenue. Atrazine, Randox, Cicero-T, 2, 4-D and Lorox have been applied as both granular and liquid materials in corn, Randox, Amiben, Alanap and Dinitro have been applied as both granular and liquid spray in soybeans. Sodium PCP has been applied as a spray. The chemicals on corn were applied May 16th and 20th. The chemicals on beans were applied May 31 and June 1. You may take a look at these plots if you desire. We will try to keep you posted on the effectiveness of these chemicals from time to time.

Some of the oat varieties in the demonstration plot located on the Lester Sayre's farm at the corner of Wolf Road and Route 6, are beginning to head out. In case you wish to identify the varieties, they are as follows, from north to south: Goodfield, Dodge, Beedee, Newton, Clinton 60, Minhafer, Illinois Experimental, Tonka, Putnam 61, and Shield.

The 4-H Fair board met recently. They have established the fair date as August 4th. The fair will be held at the Will

County 4-H Fairgrounds, Fred A. Francis 4-H Field, north of New Lenox.

I was privileged to tour, with other farm advisers from northern Illinois, at the new Swift and Company Meat Packing Plant at Rochelle. This modern plant provides a convenient market for farmers producing livestock in northwestern Illinois, and even Iowa, for that matter. This plant in its livestock purchase program, is placing emphasis on the meatiness of livestock, particularly hogs. True meat type was evaluated and a premium paid for hogs measuring up to this quality standard.

A Soil Judging Training School and contest will be sponsored by the Will-South Cook Soil and Water Conservation District. This event will be held cooperatively between the district, the Extension offices in each county, and vocational agriculture teachers in the high schools in Will county. Five youngsters will constitute a team. This team can represent a single club, a combination of clubs, or the entire county.

I would appreciate hearing from club leaders or club members who would be interested in participating in this event. If considerable interest is shown, a training preliminary program will be held prior to the county event, which is scheduled for August 21.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

Most analysts state that capital expenditures are very important in forming a sound base on which business can prosper.

Fortune magazine reports that the capital goods orders are running at the rate of more than $50 billion in the second quarter. This is a gain of $5 billion and a further increase is expected the second half of this year. This increase is expected to be at the rate of an additional $3.5 billion. The increased depreciation allowance expected thru liberalization of income taxes in this area and the expected tax credit on capital investments, will aid in pushing up totals spent on capital equipment.

A sharp rise is reported in non-residential construction which is usually less than half of totals being spent on production machinery, etc. Production machinery activity is moving ahead at about 10 per cent over last year and expected to show a further gain of about the same amount the last half of this year.

Moore Appointed To Run For GOP Representative

Don A. Moore, Bremen Township GOP Committee Chairman was recently named to fill the vacancy as candidate for Representative in the Illinois General Assembly from the 2nd District.

The vacancy occurred when Representative Harold Hoover died during the pre-primary period, before his name could be removed from the ballot. This is the first time that a Republican candidate will run for an office outside the township level.

Moore will run in the November General Election with Representative Terrel Clarke as a partner against the Democratic Candidates.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

VOTE NO, HE SAYS

Dear Sir:

On June 16, 1962 the home owners of various school districts of southwest Cook county

will be asked to approve another increase in their tax burden.

This tax increase is the largest asked for in many years. Ultimately the increased tax load

will mean a 15% increase in our tax bill.

Perhaps today some can afford higher taxes. Remember

IGA FOOD MAGIC! by Eddie Doucette
EDDIE'S BARBECUE SAUCE

Saute 1 minced, medium onion and 1 minced clove garlic in 1/3 cup bacon drippings or oil, until soft. Add 1/2 cup water, 1/4 cup wine vinegar, juice of 1 lemon, 1 1/4 cup IGA Chili Sauce, 2 tbsp. brown sugar, 1 tbsp. Worcestershire Sauce, 1 tsp. dry mustard, 1 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper, 1/2 tsp. oregano. Let simmer for 30 minutes. If sauce seems too thick, dilute with water or, better yet, wine. Brush on meat.

KITCHEN TALK

Pre-cooking the spareribs in the kitchen shortens cooking time on the grill. Also, it insures thorough cooking of the meat.
